THE CHINA MAIL.

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1878.

THE efforts of His Excellency the Governor to increase the revenue from the Opium Farm have apparently not yet met with the success at one time anticipated. Referring to the opium revenue, in laying the estimates for the present year on the table at a meeting of the Legislative Council on the 12th November 1877, Mr Hennessy indicated that the opium farm was declining in value; that he was dissatisfied with such a state of affairs, and that at the expiry of the existing contract in March 1879 he was pretty confident he would be able to obtain a much larger sum for the monopoly than had been hitherto paid. Referring to the same subject in his financial speech on Tuesday last, His Excellency spoke in apparently less hopeful tones of obtaining a largely increased price for the Opium Farm at the expiry of the present contract. "As regards the Opium Farm," said His Excellency, "there are certain alterations in the Ordinance which I contemplate submitting to you. They are alterations in detail, and I apprehend they are alterations which my honourable friends will support. I may mention that I did draft, with the assistance of the Attorney-General, a Bill to establish in this Colony an Opium Farm identical with that in Singapore. But my honourable friends who know more than I do of the commercial transactions of this Colony, and whose views on such subjects I always receive with the utmost deference, at once suggested that that proposed Bill should not be pressed, and of course I took their advice. The Bill will not be laid before you, but only such amendments of the existing law as my honourable friends will approve."

Possessing no information in regard to the Bill, which His Excellency proposed, for establishing in Hongkong an Opium Farm identical with
